

CLINICAL LEADERSHIP IN MENTAL HEALTH INFORMATION TRAINING

ARE YOU A CLINICAL LEADER IN MENTAL HEALTH?

ARE YOU BAFFLED ABOUT HOW TO FULLY USE MENTAL HEALTH INFORMATION AND OUTCOMES MEASUREMENT?

ARE YOU UNSURE HOW YOU CAN OFFER LEADERSHIP IN THIS AREA TO COLLEAGUES?

Following successful training to the Northern and Midland regions, Te Pou is offering one day training for clinical leaders in mental health in both the Central and Southern regions. This flyer gives details of the Central region training. The training session will help people understand mental health information.

The session will focus on the clinical utility of mental health information, in particular the HoNOS family of measures, with content on:

- clinician / service user interactions using mental health information
- clinician feedback to service users on outcomes measurement
- integrating outcomes measurement and information into clinical teams
- aggregated data: making sense of regional data (using the actual data for the Central and Southern regions on outcomes measurement).

PRESENTERS

Members of the Te Pou Information team will facilitate the day:

- Mark Smith, Clinical Lead Specialist
- Richard Woodcock, Information Lead NGO
