

11th Addiction Research Symposium Programme 2021

Wednesday 18 August 2021

Location: Victoria University Wellington Room: TTRLT1 (Te Toki a Rata Building on Kelburn Parade)
--

8.30- 8.50 Registration and Coffee
8.50-9.10 Welcome
9.10- 11.10 Presenter	Session 1: Research Snapshots Title
	Substance Use
Chandi Prakash , Parental and pregnancy service, community Alcohol and Drug Services (CADS), Auckland &amp; Maternal Mental Health, Auckland District Health Board	Co-existing problems in perinatal women with substance use disorder (SUD) accessing parental and pregnancy (PPS) services in Auckland
Jude Ball , Department of Public Health, University of Otago, Wellington	Youth 19: A snapshot of adolescent substance use in Aotearoa New Zealand
	Gambling
Laura Mauchline , Gambling and Addictions Research Centre, Auckland University of Technology	Identifying risk factors for client pre-treatment dropout from a gambling counselling service – a preliminary study
Maria Bellringer , Gambling and Addictions Research Centre, Auckland University of Technology	How changing gambling behaviours affect health and lifestyle behaviours
	Online and Social Media
Janie Sheridan , School of Pharmacy, University of Auckland	Cannabidiol products online: a systematic investigation of websites
Robin van der Sanden , SHORE &amp; Whariki Research Centre, Massey University, Auckland	Predictors of using social media to purchase drugs in New Zealand: Findings from a large-scale online survey
11.10 -11.30 Morning Tea
11.30 -12.30 Presenter	Session 2: Vaping and Tobacco Title
David Newcombe , Centre for Addiction Research, Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences, University of Auckland	Vaping and tobacco smoking among gay and bisexual men: An international comparison between New Zealand and Australia
Stella Vickers , Department of Public Health, University of Otago Wellington	Smoking Enclaves: A mixed-methods study of social contextual influences on smoking among New Zealanders with mental illness

11th Addiction Research Symposium Programme 2021

Wednesday 18 August 2021

Natalie Walker , National Institute for Health Innovation, University of Auckland	Is cytisine at least as effective as varenicline for smoking cessation?
12.30 – 1.30 Lunch &amp; Poster Session
1.30-2.50 Presenter	Session 3: Drug Harms and Harm Reduction Title
Joe Boden, Department of Psychological Medicine, University of Otago, Christchurch	Investigating methamphetamine use in population-based cohorts: opportunities and obstacles
Rose Crossin, Department of Population Health, University of Otago, Christchurch	Measuring drug harm in New Zealand: why should we, and how do we?
Grace Wang, Auckland University of Technology	Aggression and substance use: the role of personality, coping style and negative emotions
Sahir Hussain, School of Psychology, Victoria University of Wellington	Paternal alcohol consumption causes reduced sensitivity to the motor coordination deficits of ethanol in offspring
2.50 – 3.10 Afternoon Tea
3.10-5.10 Presenter	Session 4: Opioids and OST Title
Rhys Ponton, School of Pharmacy, University of Auckland	Methadone dilution in New Zealand: an assessment of practice and opinions of specialist prescribers and dispensing chemists
Carina Walters, School of Pharmacy, University of Auckland	“No one knew” Consumer experiences of prescription and over-the-counter opioid dependence
Tara Hayward, Department of Psychological Medicine, University of Otago, Christchurch	Cognitive functioning in opioid substitution treatment and the potential for cognitive remediation
Kelly Paton, School of Biological Sciences, Centre for Biodiscovery, Victoria University of Wellington	Developing non-addictive pain medications
Brittany Scouller, School of Biological Sciences, Centre for Biodiscovery, Victoria University of Wellington	Can we develop safer opioid medication?
Sarah Carr-Smith, MPSNZ Addictions Pharmacist	Provision of take-home naloxone between 2019-2020 in clients attending the Auckland opioid substitution service between 2019-2020
5.10 – 5.15 Close
5.15 – 6.30 Please join us for refreshments and networking, location TBA.

11th Addiction Research Symposium Programme 2021

Wednesday 18 August 2021

Poster Session (11:30 – 12:30)

Presenter	Title
Edit Horvath, Sex Therapist, Active Sexlife Solutions	'How do I stop?' Case studies of unwanted and persistent sexual behaviours
David Newcombe, Centre for Addiction Research, Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences, University of Auckland	Enhancing primary care screening in older adults: A pilot study in Aotearoa New Zealand
Lana Cleland, Department of Psychological Medicine, University of Otago, Christchurch	A multidisciplinary investigation into the long-term effects of regular cannabis use: study protocol
Clara Dawkins, Training Fellow, Faculty of Addiction Medicine, FRNZCGP, RACP	Trends in referrals of pregnant women to the inpatient detox unit in Auckland
Jennifer Jiyun Park, School of Population Health, University of Auckland	Online interventions for addictive online behaviours: a systematic review
Natalie Walker, School of Population Health, university of Auckland	Poorly informed consumers: the provision of health information and warnings for alcoholic beverages sold online in New Zealand and the United Kingdom